

Notes

In the early 1700s life for the common people of England was hard with few labour laws to protect them
BUT GOD HAD A PLAN! While the poor languished in their misery, God was working in the life of a young and devout clergyman, whose own spiritual darkness would be changed by the light of God's Word.

Susanna, John Wesley's mother.
His Mother was praying! She was not to be disturbed.

Notes

Into the Father's Hands

His mother Susanna felt John had been saved by God for a special purpose.

John Wesley was determined to be a man worth saving.

Caring for the poor!

Notes

John Wesley Journey to America. The colony of Georgia was still relatively new, colonies had only been established.
John meets with the Moravian Christians.
John was challenged about his Christian Faith.
John met Peter Bohler, a Moravian Christian.
2 Peter chapter 1...There are given to us exceeding great and precious promises by which we can be partakers of the divine nature.

Notes

John Wesley preached in the fields.
He fell into the Fathers arms. To this very day. John was rescued from a fire as a child. He literally fell into his father's arms. But it wasn't until he was able to fall into his Heavenly Father's to completely trust in the Atonement of Jesus Christ.	